DANCER OF THE WEEK:

SARA UMINER
CHESTNUT HILL, MA

What is the most unique part about where you live?

I live in Chestnut Hill- which is a suburb of Boston. In my neighborhood there are many Jews but very few from Jews. But I travel to a frum school a few towns over. We live in a very suburban area but very close to a city.

What is your favorite dance move?

Chassé

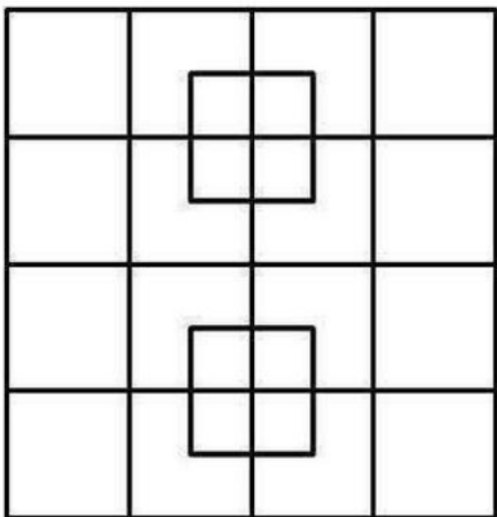

Besides dance, what do you like to do?

Read, write, art bake and play with my siblings especially my baby sister Shaina.

FOR THE SHABBOS TABLE:

PROUD YIDDIN

In this weeks Parsha, Parshas Bo, Hashem commands the Yiddin to take sheep on the 10th day of Nissan and keep it in their houses tied to the bedpost. The mitzrim came into the Yiddin's houses and asked what they were doing with the sheep as the mitzrim would worship sheep. The yiddin were not embarrassed or afraid. The Yiddin told the Mitzrim that they were going to offer the sheep as a korban Pesach to Hashem. We learn we should never be afraid or embarrassed to do what Hashem asks and follow the ways of the Torah. Even if others ask us what we are doing or why, we should be strong and confident because we are following in the ways of Hashem. We are so lucky we can even follow in the ways of Hashem when we learn dance in a tzniusdike way with Yiddishe music and simcha.
